THE END OF THE FIRST PART.

Handwritten text in a narrow, funnel-shaped column, likely a continuation from the previous page. The script is a medieval Gothic hand.

A large rectangular block of text, likely a full page or a large section, enclosed in a decorative border. The text is written in a medieval Gothic script. The border is composed of a series of small, circular illustrations, possibly depicting figures or scenes, arranged in a repeating pattern. The text is organized into several lines, with some lines being longer than others, suggesting a structured layout.
